

General conditions for participants 2017

Definitions

Fiets en Wandelbeurs: an informative fair, hereinafter called FWB, for people interested in cycling and rambling holidays and recreation

Organizer: Organizing body, namely Holcus Buiten BV, of Diemen, the Netherlands

Participant(s): Companies, institutions or organizations, which have submitted a registration form that has been accepted by the organizer resulting in hiring of exhibition space during the FWB.

Visitor(s): People visiting the FWB.

Personal stand: stand built by the participant

Standard stand: stand built by the organizer.

1. Participants

Participants must be companies, institutions or organizations that:

1.1 are actively involved in biking and walking holidays or recreational activities in this field in the broadest sense. This also includes day trips from residence or accommodation and biking and walking holidays in the Netherlands and abroad.

1.2 provide lodgings/accommodation for one or more nights to people involved in activities described in 1.1 of this article.

1.3 produce, supply, import or retail bicycles, bicycle accessories or walking accessories.

1.4 produce, supply, import or retail maps, guidebooks, books related to biking and walking.

1.5 produce, supply, import or retail outdoor sports articles and accessories related to activities as mentioned in 1.1

1.6 operate as a tourist information bureau, recreation agency, visitors centre or company that provide (or can provide) specific information on activities mentioned in 1.1.

1.7 provide or organize journeys, holidays and day trips as mentioned in 1.1

1.8 consider that they fit into the scope of the fair, to be assessed by the organizer.

2. Location and time

The FWB will take place:

in the Netherlands on Saturday 11th and Sunday 12th February 2017 at the Jaarbeurs in Utrecht, in Belgium on Saturday February 18th and 19th 2017 at Flanders Expo in Ghent.

3. Opening hours

Visitors: The FWB is open to visitors on both days from 10:00 to 17:00 hours.

Participants: Admission one hour before and half an hour after opening hours for visitors, and during the period for building up and dismantling of the stands.

4. Building up and dismantling

Exhibitors building their own stands can do so on the Thursday prior to the fair from 12:00 onwards. Exhibitors opting for our uniform stands can fit out their stands on the Friday prior to the fair from 12:00 hours onwards.

The construction of the stand must be ready by Friday at 21:00, unless otherwise agreed with the organizer. After this time, the organizer is entitled to place at the expense of the exhibitor at least a back wall and to lay carpet. The interior of the state after that date can be finalized.

Dismantling of the stands starts on Sunday after 17:00 hours. From 19:00 hours the actually breaking down of the stands can start. At night at 02:00 hours the halls have to be handed over empty. If participants use uniform stand building, the stand has to be cleared up completely before Sunday 19:00 hours. Dismantling of own stand must have been started before 21:00 hours.

Dismantling of all stands must take place at the prescribed times. The organizer publishes all information on the website for exhibitors. If a stand is not dismantled, or left in the original condition, in time, the participant will be liable to pay the extra costs.

During the construction and dismantling safety rules apply. The wearing of safety shoes and helmets are mandatory at the times indicated. Basically this is prior to Friday 12:00 hours and after Sunday 19:00 hours.

5. Stand and design

5.1 A stand is at least two meters deep.

5.2 Participants should explicitly should take into account the character and atmosphere which the organizer of the FWB has in view, which include a decent back and carpeting. The use of audio and other audiovisual equipment must be limited so that other stands are not hindered in their regular presentations. The organizer will be the final judge of this.

5.3 Materials brought into the stand hired should not exceed the available space. Participants must at all times follow the instructions given by, or on behalf of, the organizer. In addition, participants must comply with the fair buildings' own rules, which can be found on the website of the organizer. Back walls must be placed at least 2 meter from the aisles. Maximum height of stands is three meters, provided that there is space to build that high. The organizer can allow exceptions to this building height. A written request to allow this should reach the organizer two months before the Fair at the latest. If this request is submitted too late or not at all, any loss suffered or any stand adaptation required will be at the participant's own risk and costs. The organizer will mark the stand with alphanumeric characters on the stands to indicate the location in the hall. The outside finish of the stand visible to the visitors should be complete.

5.4 The design of non-standard stands must comply with the character and atmosphere of the FWB the organizer has in mind and indicated, and must be submitted to the organizer two months before the Fair at the latest. Constructional designs will be submitted to the department of the government responsible for structures and buildings. No objects may be attached to the ceiling or the roof of the building.

5.5 After use, participants must leave the standard stand they have hired in the same condition it was at time of hiring, to the satisfaction and judgement of the organizer. If the stand is not returned in its original condition after use, or goods or other items have been left behind, the organizer can have the stand repaired or the materials removed at the participant's cost.

5.6 During the opening hours of the FWB, the stand must be fully equipped and manned.

5.7 The organizer reserves the right to allocate stands to participants in accordance with his own views. Participants cannot derive rights from arrangements or maps sent to them in the planning stage. The organizer can change the arrangement of the stands at any time.

5.8 Participants are not allowed to provide in whatever way in the catering for the visitors without explicit permission of the organizer.

6. Technical provisions

For the provision of electrical and water supplies in a stand, a request must be submitted using the appropriate form and procedure and sent to the company sub-contracted to do this work by the organizer. This company will provide the requested supplies. Participants are not allowed to make their own provisions or facilities, nor to extend or change the provisions supplied. Participants are obliged to follow the rules given on the website.

7. Payment

7.1 Participants must pay the rental costs of the stand within 21 days after receipt of the invoice. If the invoice date is less than 21 days before start of the FWB, then at the latest on the Wednesday before the show date. The invoice will be sent to you on receipt of your signed registration form.

7.2 If the payment is not made when due, the participant forfeits the right to take part in the FWB. However, the participant is still contractually bound to pay the rental costs when this occurs.

7.3 Provisions requested after submission of the registration form will be invoiced later. These must be paid also within 21 days.

8. Cancellation

A participant can only cancel his/her registration by sending a letter of cancellation to the organizer by registered mail. The date of the postmark will be taken as the cancellation date. Cancellation costs due are:

- when cancelled within 14 days after receipt of the invoice: 50% of the total amount plus VAT
- when cancelled more than 14 days before the stands will be erected: 75% of the total amount plus VAT. For The Netherlands this is January 29th 2017 and for Belgium this is February 4th 2017.
- when cancelled after this date: 100% of the total amount plus VAT.

9. Liability

9.1 All participants are liable for damages suffered by the organizer or third parties as a result of their participation in the FWB.

9.2 The organizer cannot be held liable for damage to or loss of goods during the FWB, the preparation phase and the dismantling period.

9.3 The organizer cannot be held liable for damages caused by visitors to the FWB.

9.4 The organizer cannot be held liable for damage or physical injuries resulting from a defect in the construction of the stand or the provisions therein.

10. Insurance

The participants must have third party (public liability) insurance for the duration of the FWB, including the periods of time needed for building up and dismantling of the stands.

11. Special Offers

Special offers during the FWB may only be made on products or services for the 2017/2018 season. Products, services and promotional material can only be offered to visitors within the borders of the rented stand. In view of the informative character of the event, participants can offer only one product or service at a discount. More discounts are not allowed. If the above mentioned conditions are not met, the organizer can remove the special offer from the stand. The organizer has the right to set rules that participants are obliged to follow.

12. Dissolution and default

12.1 In the event of complete or partial non-compliance with the above, the organizer has, after having given a verbal warning, the right to end the agreement with immediate effect. This will then result in a withdrawal of the participant from the FWB with no rights to restitution of (part of) the rent or any other compensation. The organizer also has the right to ban the participant from future events.

12.2 When a participant is engaged in (promoting) other activities than those stated in the registration form, the organizer has the right to remove the products or services concerned, if not the participant, from the FWB. The participant has no right to restitution of (part of) the rent or any other compensation.

13. Cancellation FWB

13.1 At all times the organizer has, due to special circumstances, the right to decide that the FWB or parts of it, will be cancelled, or will continue at another location or time.

13.2 Should the above occur, the organizer cannot be held liable by the participant for any damages, unless the organizer can be held to have indulged in foul play or committed gross negligence.

13.3 If the FWB is cancelled or held in another location, the participant has the right to observe or renounce the agreement, unless the organizer can be held to have indulged in foul play or committed gross negligence.

13.4 Should circumstances of the kind mentioned in 13.1 occur, the rent minus a proportionate part of the costs incurred by the organizer will be returned to the participant. If a participant has not yet paid the rent, it will be [calculated with?] with due regard to the above.

13.5 Participants have no right to postpone payments.

14. General

14.1 The organizer decides whether a potential participant will be accepted to the FWB.

14.2 The participant should not behave in a way that can possibly put the safety of the visitors to the FWB and other participants or the premises at risk. If the organizer observes such behavior, he has the right to remove the participant concerned without prior warning from the FWB. The participant has no right to restitution of (part of) the rent or any other compensation.

14.3 This agreement is subject to Dutch law.

14.4 The general conditions of participation are explicitly excluded from this agreement.

Holcus Buiten BV Handelsregister (Company register) number 34272134